Ballantine Books, United States, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 234 x 145 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Peter Bogdanovich, known primarily as a director, film historian and critic, has been working with professional actors all his life. He started out as an actor (he debuted on the stage in his sixth-grade production of Finian s Rainbow ); he watched actors work (he went to the theater every week from the age of thirteen and saw every important show on, or off, Broadway for the next decade); he studied acting, starting at sixteen, with Stella Adler (his work with her became the foundation for all he would ever do as an actor and a director). On Lillian Gish: the first virgin hearth goddess of the screen . . . a valiant and courageous symbol of fortitude and love through all distress. On Marlon Brando: He challenged himself never to be the same from picture to picture, refusing to become the kind of film star the studio system had invented and thrived upon the recognizable human commodity each new film was...
