As such then I considered Miranda Warnar. The high eulogium on her life which I recently saw showed that my judgment was not at fault; that the woman was what the girl promised to be. It is to be hoped that some who were my scholars are present. If so. accept the warm greeting of a friend, and please, send me a line. Accompanying, is what will show some of time s doings. I am now an infirm and physically broken old man; laid aside from all active life, my life-work done. For more than fifty years I was a teacher; now I am more a memory than a reality; I but wait tor the cars. My wife is living, a confirmed invalid. This letter is a greeting and a farewell. You have met to greet each...
