Excerpt: .and cries: That looks better; one sees at least where and how. The Devil clinches the point like a good theologian, by a biblical allusion: Green is the golden tree of Life; but all theory, or if you please, the tree of Knowledge is grey, very hazy. Such seems to be the Devil's opinion of those two famous Mosaic trees. Our student is certainly making rapid progress under the tuition of Mephisto; he has in a short talk arrived at the rejection of knowledge in the four Faculties, which point it took Faust ten years of hard study to attain. Very rapid progress, it must be confessed; still further, the student has chosen, for his practical activity in life, the practice of Medicine, on account of its opportunity for diabolism; he is thus transformed into a Mephisto without ten years study. Both Faust and...
