If, then, it becomes necessary that a child draw its sustenance from some other breast than its mother s, let a perfectly healthy nurse be obtained; and above all, let her be of an amiable temper, good character, and of regular habits. The breast milk differs at different times, so that it may be improper for the child. 1st. As has been before mentioned in respect to food--a purely vegetable diet rendering the milk unhealthy, and causing pain and griping in the child s bowels, which is often relieved by using a diet composed in part of animal food. 2d. In respect to time of digestion. Towards the twelfth hour after eating, the milk becomes thick and yellowish, and is spit out by the child; hence the meals should be taken regularly, that a healthy secretion of...
