Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Annual Address Before the Euphradian and Clariosophic Societies of the South Carolina College: December 1853 [This Address was intended to be a spoken exhortation to the young men of the South Carolina College - nothing more. It was prepared exclusively for the rostrum - leaving much to be added or omitted in the delivery, as the suggestions of the moment might dictate. As there was no purpose of literary display, no care was taken to give it any pretension to mere literary merit. It may be said, under these circumstances, it ought not to be printed. I think so; but the young gentlemen demand a different course - and it is theirs. I have neither the time, nor, indeed, the nerve to revert to it for revision. Having no literary reputation to maintain, nor the hope of achieving one, I let the Address go, claiming charity for it on the plea of a worthy purpose - that of suggesting to my young countrymen a sure way to the highest Truth; for the liberty they live...
