Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Speeches of the Hon.: Henry May, of Maryland, Delivered in the House of Representatives, at the Third Session of the Thirty-Seventh Congress Mr. May, of Maryland, said: Mr. Speaker: I have only been apprised since I came into this Hall, that these sad ceremonies of respect to our distinguished colleague, were appointed for to-day. I wish, sir, to offer my tribute to his memory. He honored me with his friendship for many years, and in the last months of his life freely imparted to me his views upon the vital questions which now, unhappily, divide our country. I am authorized to speak for him here upon those questions; and I wish, if the unpremeditated thoughts and feelings suggested by the occasion, or awakened by the touching and eloquent tributes of the distinguished gentlemen who have preceded me, may go in place of more studied eulogy, to offer them just as they spring from toy heart. I desire to speak of the respect in which he was held by those who, in the divisions of political...
