Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Fifty Years in Oregon: Experiences, Observations, and Commentaries Rises Upon Men, Measures, and Customs in Pioneer Days and Later Times Although I have selected Fifty Years in Oregon as the title of this book, my actual residence in the Beaver State - and on the planet - began sixty years ago to-day. The opening sentences of this chapter are being written on March 12, 1911, the sixtieth anniversary of an event which, if it had not occurred, would have materially changed my plans in many respects. I am not an Oregon pioneer in the sense that I pioneered myself, or was pioneered by somebody else, into this great and wonderful part of Uncle Sam's domain in the days when it required a vast amount of courage, self-reliance, and a certain degree of recklessness of consequences, to abandon the comforts and safeguards of civilization and start on that difficult journey of over two thousand miles. For those brave souls came to a country of which they had little reliable information, and the way led through...
