Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The poems within this volume bound Crept into my mind without a sound Often waking me from a deep sleep Searching for paper for to keep The ideas in order and in mind Until the time for writing I find. Along with a poem might be a thought Explaining how the verse was wrought. Hope that the twinkle from my eye to paper Gives you a chuckle, and your worries taper! Jeanne Awad was born in Franklin, New Hampshire where she graduated from Franklin High School. She graduated from Fitchburg State University in Massachusetts where she received her Bachelor s and Master s Degrees. After teaching in Gardner, Massachusetts for Thirty-three years, she retired in Punta Gorda, Florida arriving in time to experience Hurricane Charley. Jeanne has enjoyed water skiing, boating, snow skiing, snowmobiling, and sports cars. She is a solo pilot who flew with her instrument commercial rated husband all over New England in their own aircraft for over thirty years. Currently, Jeanne s hobbies include boating, walking, and bike riding. Most recently, she has become an avid pistol and rifle target shooter. The poems in this book were written over a period of eight years, and each poem was written with a person or an event in mind. Each poem was shared with family and friends with the hope that the messages would bring smiles, happiness, and warmth.
